Oakland County Michigan Works!, in partnership with the Oakland Livingston Human Service Agency, is launching two new programs to help local businesses hire and retain valuable employees.

Join us on February 5 to learn about the new Oakland County Community Ventures and Business Resource Network programs, including:

- Strategies that result in employee retention rates of 90 percent* or more, saving companies $3,500 or more in training costs per replacement employee
- Methods that increase employee satisfaction and productivity
- A wage reimbursement of up to $1,500 for hiring targeted populations
- A network of experienced coaches dedicated to the success of your workforce
- Information on obstacles some employees face and how these two programs help them overcome the challenges
- Program enrollment requirements and how to get started

*ERN-USA 2019

Six weeks of training at average wage

Program managers will be on-hand to share additional information. Success coaches also will be there to answer your questions.
